

A vintage-style apron pattern is displayed against a blue-painted wooden door. The pattern features a white background with large, colorful floral motifs in shades of pink, red, yellow, and green. A central vertical strip of orange and white gingham fabric is attached to the pattern. The apron has a ruffled hem and a matching gingham waistband. The pattern is held up by a wooden clothespin on a string.

VINTAGE INSPIRED

APRON PATTERN

FROM

the bold abode

and the adventures of living in color

Hi! I'm Gwen from
The Bold Abode.

I'm so glad you downloaded this Vintage Inspired Apron Pattern. I hope you enjoy making your own aprons as much as I do!

To view the instructions online, just visit my series on this Vintage Inspired Apron.

For more fun projects, visit me at <http://theboldabode.com>.

If you have questions, please feel free to email me at abide@theboldabode.com.

I'd love to feature your apron on my blog. Just send me a photo or a link to your apron and I will share it with my readers!

I adore my readers and customers! Thank you so very, very much for being one! </fistbump> ©2013 This Bold Girl. All rights reserved in all media. May be shared with copyright and credit left intact.

VINTAGE INSPIRED APRON PATTERN

by Gwen from
The Bold Abode

APRON SKIRT
29" X 16.5"

WAISTBAND
20.5" X 5"

APRON TIES
25.5" X 5" CUT 2

BOTTOM RUFFLE
23" X 5"